

Hmong Health Equity Campaign

Covid Survey Data

The purpose of the Covid-19 survey was to obtain information on how the Covid-19 pandemic has affected the Hmong population living within the Twin Cities, Minnesota area.

Safe to return to school?

Safe 19%
Not Safe 55%
Unsure 26%

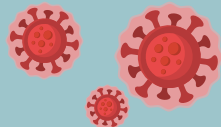

90% of individuals noted they believed Covid-19 is a significant crisis.

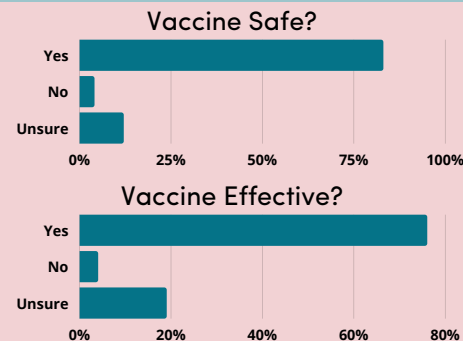

75% of individuals noted they are extremely concerned of covid infection within and not within the Hmong community.

52% of individuals report knowing someone who has died from Covid-19.

46% of individuals report having someone in their immediate household being infected.

The number 1 source of information amongst individuals was from family members.

